

Bone Wax

Bone Wax is an excellent hemostat with essential hemostatic characteristics for precise applications. Used to control bleeding in bones, it is frequently used by clinicians for hemostasis in sternotomy procedures.

The Bone Wax product is nonabsorbable.

The shelf-life for Bone Wax is five years from the date of manufacture.